MOTION GRANTED

December 22, 2016

Margaret Bartley
Judge

BRUCE W. EBERT, Ph.D., J.D., ABPP (CSBN 151576)
300 HARDING BLVD. Suite 116
Roseville, California 95661
Telephone: (916) 781-7875
Facsimile: (916) 781-2632

BEFORE THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR VETERANS CLAIMS

LEO ROBINSON, Appellant, v. ROBERT A. MCDONALD, Secretary of Veterans Affairs, Appellee.	CASE NO. 15-4105 MOTION TO FILE RULE 35 MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION AND MOTION FOR DECISION BY THREE JUDGE PANEL LONGER THAN FIFTEEN PAGES HEARING DATE: NONE HEARING TIME: N/A JUDGE: HONORABLE MARGARET BARTLEY

Now comes Appellant with this motion before this honorable Court requesting the to file his Rule 35 motion in excess of fifteen pages. Appellant has found twelve major errors in law, three major errors in fact and articulated three important public policy reasons for the request for a decision by a three judge panel. The reason is Appellant has found so many errors in law and fact that it requires twenty-nine pages to describe the errors and provide supporting documentation for them.

CONCLUSION

In light of the many serious errors in law in the Robinson decision, the errors in fact and the important public policy issues this case presents for the Court, we respectfully request permission for file this Rule 35 motion beyond the fifteen-page maximum set forth in the rule.

12/07/2016 /SIGNED/

Dr. Bruce W. Ebert, Esq., LL.M., ABPP

Clinical & Forensic Psychologist

President & CEO – Center for Mental Health Law & Ethics

Attorney at Law