

THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR VETERANS CLAIMS

BRUCE MOSEBY BRACK,
Appellant,

v.

DENIS MCDONOUGH,
Secretary of Veterans Affairs,
Appellee.

VET. APP. NO. 22-3957

APPELLANT'S UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR A 21-DAY EXTENSION OF TIME UNTIL JUNE 5, 2024, TO FILE MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Pursuant to U.S. Vet. App. Rules 10 (b) and 26, Appellant, by and through his undersigned counsel moves this Court for an extension of time to file a motion for reconsideration. If not for this motion, his motion would be due on May 15, 2024.

Mr. Brack seeks an extension until June 5, 2024. Good cause exists for this motion. Counsel for the appellant has had multiple other filings and hearings since the panel decision was issued such that he was unable to thoroughly review and evaluate a possible course of action. Specifically, since the court issued this decision counsel has had to travel for oral argument at the Veterans Court and the Federal Circuit; and he has had to prepare and file two CAFC briefs, three CAVC briefs, two CAVC reply briefs, one CAFC reply brief, and eight R33 SOI's. Because of these circumstances, additional time is needed to review the panel decision and potentially file a motion for reconsideration.

The motion for reconsideration is currently due: May 15, 2024.

Revised date sought: June 5, 2024.

To this point, Appellant has been granted one 45-day extension of time to respond to the RBA, one 45-day extension of time to file his opening brief, and one 45-day extension of time to file his reply brief.

To this point, no extensions have been requested or granted for Appellee.

The undersigned has contacted Secretary's counsel and she is unopposed to this motion.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Kenneth H. Dojaquez
