

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR VETERANS CLAIMS

DOUGLAS J. ROSINSKI,

Petitioner,

V.

DAVID J. SHULKIN, M.D.,

Secretary of Veterans Affairs,

Respondent.

Case No. 17-1117

Unopposed Motion of the National Law School Veterans Clinic Consortium to Participate in Oral Argument

Comes now the National Law School Veterans Clinic Consortium (NLSVCC) and pursuant to Rule 27 of the Court's Rules, requests that leave be granted to participate in oral argument. In support of this request, NLSVCC states as follows:

1. Appellant is willing to share up to five minutes of his allotted oral argument time with the NLSVCC.
2. The Secretary, through counsel, does not oppose this request.
3. NLSVCC, through its counsel, desires to highlight certain matters in its amicus brief, as well as respond to any questions from the Court as to any matter in the brief.
4. NLSVCC counsel is mindful of Rule 34(c) which provides that oral argument of amicus shall be at the invitation of the Court and therefore files this Motion.

Wherefore, the National Law School Veterans Clinic Consortium, by and through counsel, respectfully request leave to participate in oral argument.

Respectfully submitted in their individual capacities, on behalf of the NLSVCC,

/s/ Angela K. Drake
