UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR VETERANS CLAIMS

No. 16-1707

ROBERT W. MOODY,

APPELLANT,

v.

ROBERT L. WILKIE,
SECRETARY OF VETERANS AFFAIRS,

APPELLEE.

Before SCHOELEN, PIETSCH, and TOTH, Judges.

ORDER

Note: Pursuant to U.S. Vet. App. R. 30(a), this action may not be cited as precedent.

On November 8, 2018, the Court issued a decision vacating and remanding in full the Board's January 19, 2016, decision. On November 29, 2018, the appellant filed a timely motion for panel reconsideration. "[A] motion for panel . . . reconsideration shall state the points of law or fact that the party believes the Court has overlooked or misunderstood." U.S. VET. APP. R. 35(e)(1). The Court did not overlook or misunderstand any argument that was properly before it. Therefore, the appellant has not presented any argument that warrants reconsideration by the panel.

Upon consideration of the foregoing, it is ORDERED that the motion for reconsideration by the panel is denied.

DATED: January 8, 2019

PER CURIAM.
