APPELLANT’S NOTICE OF INTENT NOT TO FILE MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE REPLY IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR INITIAL PANEL REVIEW

On November 26, 2021, the Appellant, Carolyn Clark (“Mrs. Clark”), moved for initial review by panel of this case’s jurisdictional questions. On December 13, 2021, the Secretary of Veterans Affairs (“Secretary”) moved unopposed for leave to file a response in opposition to the motion for initial panel review and submitted for filing his response in opposition. On December 14, 2021, the Court granted the Secretary’s motion for leave and accepted his response for filing. In doing so, the Court suspended U.S. Vet. App. Rule 27.1.

With Rule 27.1 having been suspended with respect to the Secretary’s response in opposition to the motion for initial panel review, Mrs. Clark understands that a question might arise as to whether she intends to move for leave, under a further suspension of the Rules, to file a reply in support of the motion for initial panel review. She hereby notifies the Court that she does not intend to do so.

In Mrs. Clark’s understanding, the parties have completed their written submissions with respect to the Secretary’s motion to dismiss this case; the Secretary’s motion to stay this case pending Stiles v. McDonough, No. 20-3523; and Mrs. Clark’s motion for initial panel review.

Respectfully submitted,
