RESPONDENT’S UNOPPOSED MOTION TO RESCHEDULE THE ORAL ARGUMENT SET FOR AUGUST 17, 2022

Pursuant to U.S. Vet. App. Rule 27, Appellee, Denis McDonough, Secretary of Veterans Affairs, respectfully moves this Court to reschedule oral argument which is set for August 17, 2022. As grounds for this motion, the undersigned counsel is getting married on August 6, 2022, and will be unavailable for the remainder of August, and the undersigned’s supervisor and second chair will be unavailable from September 5 to September 12, 2022. Therefore, the Secretary’s counsel will be unable to participate in an oral argument during that period. Appellant’s counsel is unopposed to rescheduling the oral argument in this case, up to 45 days from its current date, and counsel for both parties have expressed an interest in rescheduling the oral argument for the week of September 26, 2022.

WHEREFORE, the Secretary respectfully moves the Court to reschedule the oral argument, which is currently scheduled for August 17, 2022, for the week of September 26, 2022, or as the business of the Court permits.

Respectfully submitted,
