APPELLANT’S APPLICATION FOR AN AWARD OF REASONABLE ATTORNEY FEES AND EXPENSES UNDER 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d)

Pursuant to the Equal Access to Justice Act (EAJA), the Appellant, Carmen L. Encarnacion, moves the Court for an award of reasonable attorney fees in the amount of $29,356.31.

In order to be eligible for an award of attorney’s fees under EAJA, a claimant must demonstrate (1) that he or she is a prevailing party; (2) that he or she is eligible to receive an award; and (3) that the position of the United States was not substantially justified. Bazalo v. Brown, 9 Vet.App. 304, 308 (1996). Additionally, the claimant must provide an itemized statement from the claimant’s attorney as to the services provided. Id.

Here, the Appellant satisfies all the requirements. First, the Appellant is a prevailing party. A prevailing party includes one who obtains relief in the form of a remand predicated on administrative error. Zuberi v. Nicholson, 19 Vet.App. 541, 546 (2006). In this case, the Appellant is a prevailing party because the Court, in its May 18, 2023, decision, found that the Board erred when it failed to assess whether the Appellant’s July 2018 submission qualified as a motion to reconsider the Board's earlier decision. Although the Court granted the Secretary's motion for reconsideration of the Court's January 2023 decision, the Court's May 2023 decision was "principally a restatement of the earlier decision vacating the June 2020 Board decision, modified only slightly to address matters raised in the Secretary's reconsideration motion." See May 2023 Precedential Decision, Page 2).

Second, the Appellant is eligible to receive an EAJA award. A showing of eligibility may be made by stating in the application that the Appellant's net worth at the time the appeal was filed did not exceed $2 million. Bazalo, 9 Vet.App. at 309. The undersigned counsel hereby states that the Appellant's net worth did not exceed $2 million at the time this action was filed. Furthermore, the Appellant is not a business entity.

Third, the government's position in this case was not substantially justified. There was not a reasonable basis in law supporting the Board's decision. See Stillwell v. Brown, 6 Vet.App. 291, 302 (1994) ("[A] position can be justified even though it is not correct, and . . . it can be substantially (i.e., for the most part) justified if a reasonable person could think it correct, that is, if it has a reasonable basis in law and fact.") (internal quotations omitted).

Lastly, the undersigned counsel has attached the billing statements describing the request for $29,356.31 in fees. See Exhibit A. This amount is based on 44 hours of work completed by the undersigned counsel, which was performed at a rate of $212.42 per hour ($125 per hour plus a cost-of-living adjustment from March 1996, using the CPI-U for the South urban region and September 2021, the date closest to the date the Appellant drafted the initial brief). It is also based on 101 hours of work completed by Julia N. Giesecking, Esq., and Lorenzo Di Salvo, Esq., which is detailed in their declaration. See Exhibit B. Their rate is $203.15 per hour based on the CPI for the Detroit-Warren-Dearborn region in October 2021.

Respectfully submitted,
